1. There was much military activity during the latter part of July at the Sofia railroad station which is between the Pudunae Station and the military academy. "Large quantities" of supplies, clothing, artillery, and even tanks have allegedly been loaded for shipment toward the Yugoslav border.
 2. A shipment of seven or eight "Russian tanks" allegedly passed through Sofia during the same period.
 3. A carload of Russian jeeps was observed to pass through Sofia enroute westward. On July 20 there were sixteen new Russian jeeps on the dock at Burgas which had just been unloaded from a Soviet ship.
